Football Has its Lighter Moments; And a Darker Side

Football has its lighter moments.

The serious otherside of this often community splitting sport sometimes will lead to a manifestation of petulance that reaches the proportions of the ridiculous.

But it is the lighter moment of which we speak, modestly and briefly.

Last night the residence of the Herald publisher was stoned. Shortly after 1 a. m. a fire alarm was sounded and out rushed a fine company of good natured firemen who had been told that the editor's house was on fire. The alarm was placed at a pay station from the county court house.

For the fourth time in recent years the Editor's home has been stoned at night following a football game. Whether this is traceable to objections raised in the minds of irresposibiles is not important except as it may point to the dangers of over enthusiasm to warn that athletics often lead to indiscretions to dominate the central theme of school systems when allowed too large share in avtivities, and may be significant here.

Coupled with the night tirade were scribbled and unspeakable obsenities over the front of the Herald Plant but happily they were erased before the townspeople began to stir for the day's activities.

The afternoon edition of the Daily Herald Friday carried a prediction of the score in the game between Cameron and New Braunfels. As it looked to the publisher we said 20 to 13 in favor of the Unicorns. As the game turned out we were one point shy and the final score was 19 to 13.

We take all this in good sportsmanship and in the natural course of events. We do, however, condemn the fire alarm angle to the hectic night that followed Cameron's defeat. Firemen should never be made the victims of a prankster, no matter how often a newspaper may be victimized for printing the truth, as this newspaper has done in its years of service to the people.

Whether those responsible for the obsenities written large across the show windows of the publishing plant are products of local education, we have no way of telling, but we do say they have attached themselves to the fortunes of athletics, not by encouragement perhaps but from sheer manifestations of inherent ignorance and depravity so ofter characteristic of the filthy canardist.

Another newspaper predicted the score 14 to 7 in favor of Cameron. If his residence was stoned also and his plant desecrated and the firemen called out in the middle of the night, we will publish a retraction of all this.

While disposing of the lighter events of the night with deep thanks to the Firemen, we would also in passing, call attention to a current manifestation of petulance that is typical of school politics. We would have you know that this has nothing to do with the school authorities, so far as we know, but it is significant in relation to the hold that football gets on officials and schools.

No one has ever been able to control criticism. The newly selected mouthpiece of the school authorities, the Cameron Enterprise has this to say: "For the past few days criticism has been hurled . . . . . .

WACKY WEATHER IS A TEXAS SPECIALTY

BULLETIN

A near blizzard with 45 mile winds had struck the Texas Panhandle at noon Wednesday. Much colder weather here is forecast by morning.

Cameron had 28 degrees temperature Wednesday morning for the low of the season, it was stated by L. W. Smith, local observer for the government.

Wacky weather is a Texas specialty and came near setting an all time record Wednesday. The weather was warm during the night in Cameron and freezing temperatures did not occur here until in the early morning and within the space of some 2 or 3 hours the themometer fell some 10 degrees.

Here is a detailed review of the weather chart:

You can blame all the dust storms this season on the wackiest weather Texas has had in years.

There's less cold, less rain and more dust.

Here's what's happening:

Texas is still getting its weather from the same old place—Siberia and China. But the weather is taking a different route to the Lone Star state. Instead of the normal Artic route, the cold spells are following a southerly trail.

Since October, ten of these wandering cold fronts have hit Texas—a parade of strange weather unequalled in weather bureau history.

So what? So the state is dryer than a Sahara drouth and you're eating dust from Arizona, New Mexico and west Texas.

But you aren't freezing. Only one cold front has swept down the usual northern path into the Panhandle. That was Oct. 29.

A. M. Hamrick, Dallas weather bureau chief, expleined:

"Usually, cold masses move out of Siberia and China, through Alaska and northern Canada, sweep through Montana and the Dakotas and whistle into Texas. That Artic route really gives them a chill.

"But the 10 fronts this year have strayed southward, crossed the Pacific's warmer waters, passed through southern Oregon and California and moved westward to Texas."

Warmed by the southern route, the cold fronts weren't cold enough when they hit Texas, to bring rain.

And dust from their stiff winds fogged the air, from the Panhandle to the Gulf.

And over in Fort Worth, the Soil Conservation Service got out a bulletin reporting that the threat of serious dust storms hangs again over western Oklahoma and Texas, particularlly the Texas south plains.

What Texas needs is a few cold fronts that will stay on the beam. The sissy fronts from the west aren't getting the job done. Texas needs northers from the north, dripping-wet, blue northers, with a special blizzard for Amarillo.

That way, Texas will get relief.

TRAIN CRASHES CAR SUNDAY MORNING

Mrs. John Zawadzke, 55, of Buckholts, was killed instantly at 11 a. m. Sunday morning when a Santa Fe north bound train crashed into her car at a grade crossing near the main section of the city.

Mrs. Zawadzke was returning to her home from Sunday School as the crack Texas Chief passenger train approached the station. The accident occured at the crossing west of Buckholts leading to the Bryan Station Community. She was alone in the car. The body was badly mangled by the impact and the car was completely demolished.

Mr. Zawadzke was at the home a short distance from the scene of wreck and heard the crash as the train struck the car.

Patrolmen Jack Gaines, Jack Higginbotham and Sheriff Carl C. Black investigated the accident, arriving shortly after it occured.

Engineer on The Texas Chief said that it appeared to him that the car stalled on the track. The road leading over the rails from Highway 190 is built on an upgrade over the tracks.

The total of permits for November were largely for repairs and small construction.

The total for the year will show considerable progress in Cameron and The Herald has asked Mr. Stafford to compile these figures for a progress story in the coming holiday edition of the Herald.

A Boquet for Roger

The accolade to-day goes to Roger Maddox, manager of the J. C. Penney store in Cameron.

At 9 o'clock a. m. Friday the new department store will be formally opened for business to mark a new and progressive merchandising step in Cameron.

The new store is a personal triumph for Roger Maddox, manager, because he has had a large share in planning this entirely new and beautiful department store designed for the peculiar needs of his territory.

Mr. Maddox came to Cameron two years ago from a Penney Store in Dallas to take over management of the store here. While plans had been projected for the new store it was largely through his fine conception of a modern merchandising mart that its appointments, size and expansion bring out an unusual vision of need in this store to meet the needs resulting from a healthy growth of the J. C. Penney merchandising system here.

Mr. Maddox has achieved a fine thing for Cameron and the territory and when the big new store opens to morrow the full significance of the improvements will be seen by thousands of people for the first time.

So, to-day it is a Boquet for Roger, a fine man, a fine merchandiser whose abilities have met the measure of expansion of the store and increasing usefulness here as a leader in his community.

BLIZARD DELAYED AND MAY NOT HIT HERE

Weather played one of its peculiar pranks Sunday as a scheduled blizard due in the Texas Panhandle for temperatures as low as 12 to 15 dedegrees failed.

A low pressure area developed along with storm winds to skirt the cold away and streak it across Kansas and portions of Oklahoma.

Now a new front is building up, coming out of the Rockies and is due to hit into Texas sometime Tuesday. In the meantime look for warmer weather and worst of all dry weather.

Cameron streets and sidewalks were red with dust from the plains Monday morning as one of the season's worst dust storms subsided.

BUREAU SEEKS BETTER FARMING CONDITIONS

Declaring their policy to be to "produce everything possible to meet the needs of our own people and of a hungry world," the Texas Farm Bureau Federation at the recent convention in San Antonio, also called upon other groups in the nation to match the farmer, "that we may combat the evils of inflation."

Members of the Milam County Farm Bureau, headed by S. W. McClaren, President, saw five of the local chapter's recommendations incorporated in a resolution passed at the state convention. They are: Storage for commodities that have support prices so that producers may secure loans; increased soil conservation payments; a price support program for pecans; support prices to continue on grain sorghums to compare with corn and that these loans may be made available by June 1 through March 1 of the following year.

The Milam County Farm Bureau, knowing how bad are rural roads in Milam county felt urged to recommend a Rural Road Program for Texas and saw their own resolution adopted. This resolution calling for a rural road program is far reaching and recommends a number of innovations. They recommend that the program be financed from taxes on natural resources. They ask that funds be administered through the office of the Comptroller as provided by law, that the construction and types of roads be determined by the county courts with priorities given to school bus routes, mail routes and population per mile.

The mass of resolutions set out the Farm Bureau Policy on all important questions and isues. They hit back at unequal freight rates; asked the legislature to enact a law making everyone who drives a car or truck financially liable in case of accidents; and uniform interstate trucking regulations.

The Bureau at length made recommendations on handling of livestock and research to prevent diseases pointing out that protection should be had against recurrence of wheat poisoning that resulted in great loss of animals. Other diseases requiring more research where recommended. The Bureau favors a support price on mohair.

The Bureau members covered every phase of agriculture. They want new varieties of cotton developed. They want government loans on cotton to be available by July 1. They want cotton classing decentralized. They ask that the Pink Bollworm control act be amended and rewrjteen in the light of present day knowledge. The recommend authority for farmers to vote on weed control in county units.

The Bureau members are alarmed over water resources and call for Immediate surveys and measures to conserve. They want better relations on labor supply with Mexico and commended the Good Neighbor Policy They went on record against the Fair Trades Act. They called on government as well as private utilitjes to expand their services to include all the rural areas. They want Farm and Home Administration strengthened and call for direct loans.

The Farm Bureau wants health laws revised to include on the State Board of Health four representatives of consumer groups. They call for more County Health Units and that the school lunch program be improved as an aid to rural health.

The Bureau members call for educational and information efforts to correct false radio and newspaper publicity that misrepresents the farm program and organized farmers.

The Bureau at its San Antonio Convention went to some length to recommend a uniform co-operative agreement.

The Milam County Farm Bureau has set a goal for 1000 members by the end of 1948 in this county.

AD HALL TO SAN GABRIEL ROAD IS AUTHORIZED

Construction of a farm to market road from San Gabriel to Ad Hall to connect with Highway 190 has been authorized by the Texas Highway Department.

The cost of the road is estimated at $103,3000. The Daily Herald received a copy of the minutes of the Commission in a meeting in Austin Wednesday with the following reference to the road from Ad Hall to San Gabriel:

In Milam County a Farm to Market Road from end F. M. 486 at San Gabriel to U. S. 190 at Pettibone, a distance of approximately 14.5 miles, a newly designated subject to the concurrence of the Public Roads Administration and subject to the condition that Milam County will furnish all required right of way free to cost to the State.

Upon fulfillment of the conditions of this Order, the State Highway Engineer is directed to proceed with the preparation of plans for construction, at an estimated cost of $152,000.00, and to assume the road for maintenance upon completion of construction.

A farm to market road is now under construction or has been completed from Thorndale to San Gabriel and also a farm to market road is under construction from Rockdale to a point near Sharpe. The construction of the road from Ad Hall to San Gabriel will give an outlet to highway 79 at Thorndale and 190 at Ad Hall on to Buckholts and Temple west and Cameron east.

The Commissioners Court in Milam county was notified some time ago that the designation on the road from Ad Hall to Sharpe had been made. Its extension to San Gabriel will give a continuous good road across the county north and south.

LOCAL PEOPLE TO BE PROGRAM PARTICIPANTS

Ground breaking ceremonies will be held Thursday, December 9 at the site of the Lem River Dam near Belton and local people are to have a share in the program.

Former Mayor A. W. McCullin will be one of the speakers.

E. A. Perrin is in charge of transportation and all who do not have transportation and wish to attend are asked to telephone the Chamber of Commerce.

L. Van Perkins is in charge of ticket sales. These tickets will entitle the holders to take part in the barbecue to be served during the day.

It was indicated here that a large number would attend from Cameron. Ozabeer Smith is a member of the Brazos Board for flood control and reclamation.

Mr. Perrin has suggested that all who are to attend gather at the Chamber of Commerce at 10 a. m. Thursday and proceed in a body to the Miller Springs dam site where the ceremonies will be held.

Major benefits to Milam County will come as the result of the construction of these dams on the water shed of Little River, largest of the Brazos tributaries.

Friends of Wesley Stevens will regret to learn he is ill and a patient in Newton Memorial Hospital.

Mrs. J. B. Phipps of Route 2, Cameron is a surgery patient in Newton Memorial Hospital.

SPY RING OPERATED IN STATE DEPARTMENT

WASHINGTON, Dec. 8—The House Un-American Activities Committee said tonight it has obtained from Whittaker Chambers, admitted former red agent, microfilmed copies of documents which provide "conclusive proof" that information significant to national security were "let out of the State Department."

Representative Mundt, Republican of South Dakota, said in a statement that the documents were given to Chambers by "a member of the Communist underground." This member was not identified.

Mundt, a member of the committee, stated:

"There is now in the possession of the committee, under 24-hour guard, microfilmed copies of documents of tremendous importance, which were removed from the offices of the State Department and turned over to Chambers for the purpose of transmittal to Russian Communist agents.

"These documents are of such startling and significant importance, and reveal such a vast network of Communist espionage within the State Department, that they far exceed anything yet brought before the committee in its 10-year history.

"These documents have been the object of a 10-year search by agents of the U. S. Government and provide definite proof of one of the most extensive espionage rings in the history of the United States.

"On the basis of evidence now before the committee, it appears that conclusive proof has been established that secret documents of direct significance to our national security were let out of the State Department by a member of the Communist underground of Whittaker Chambers who at that time was operating as one of the Washington contacts for the Communist underground operating in America."

ARMSTRONG AND FUCHS TEAM FOR TWO SCORES

The Cameron Yoemen were knocked off the victory leadder here Friday night but not until they had whipped up the best winning spirit among the many fine traditions of the maroon and grey.

New Braunfels lived up mightily to the advance predictions and won the game 19 to 13. The score does not tell the story of how far superior the Unicorns were to the Yoemen. Neither does it tell the story of how those Yoemen rose up to make a game of it and to tie the score late in the fourth quarter.

Olin Armstrong, Yoemen left end, scored both touchdowns for the Yoemen, one in the opening moments of the game when he took a fourth down pass from Alton Fuchs for 50 yards, coupled with a neat bit of broken field running. That put the Yoemen out ahead.

The Unicorns were led by Allen Pittman whose name did not appear in the starting lineup. He was the hidden gem in a constellation of fine backs who are taking the Unicorns to the state championship.

The Unicorns came right back and marched for a touchdown and then added the extra point and at the half the score was 13 to 6 in favor of New Braunfels. Cameron's fourth quarter score tied up the ball game when Bob Wilkinson laced it through the uprights. The Unicorns came right back to take the game away with 6 more points but missed the extra try.

Howard Beale, fullback was bottled up effectively by the Unicorn line but was a defense standout as were Eixman and Zotz at tackles. Little John Moseley was a constant threat and was always on the move, gaining much yardage. Alton Fuchs called a fine game from quarterback, despite the smothering Unicorn line that crippled his passing.

Lefty Byers of the Temple Telegram recorded the following skeleton play by play report:

Cameron won the toss and elected to receive. Fuchs took the kickoff on his own 10 and returned to the 42.

Things looked pretty dark for the Yoe boys on the first three plays of the game, but a surprise fourthdown pass caught the Unicorns napping and netted the Yoemen an early six-point lead.

On the first play of that eye-opening series, John Moseley pocketed one through the middle. Big Howard Beale then ripped off his right tackle to the 45. Moseley took it again and advanced only one yard, and it seemed only natural that a punt was oncoming.

Fuchs, instead of booting the ball, faded back and hit End Olin Armstrong some 50 yards down the field and he pranced the remaining five for the touchdown.

Cameron fans went wild.

Their enthusiasm dried up somewhat, however, when Bobby Wilkinson kicked his extra-point try wide.

Cameron's narrow lead was short lived.

Following the Yoemen kickoff, the Unicorns bulled and plowed from their own 40 on down the field to tie the thing up.

New Braunfels' Elwyn Stobaugh sacked up the boot on his own 18 and engineered it back to the 40, where the Unicorn fireworks really started to pop.

After three plays which didn't near net the Unicorns a first down, Allen Pittman ripped over his right tackle for a new lease on the Cameron 34.

A 15-yard clipping penalty against the Yoemen moved the ball on down to the Cameron 14. James Schmidt circled his left end to the eight, and he did it again for five more. Schmidt got a first down on the Cameron one. Schmidt and Elbel lost three yards, but on the third poke, Schmid blasted his right tackle for the score.

Jerome Bindseil missed the extra point to leave the score all knotted up.

The Yoemen took the kickoff, but couldn't go, so Melroy Eixman punted out on his own 41. This is where the Unicorns started rolling for their second touchdown.

Bindseil hit center to the Cameron 26, Schmidt galloped around his right end to the one, then on the next play, Pitman bombarded the middle for the touchdown. Schmidt booted the extra point.

On the series of plays following the next kickoff, Cameron moved the ball, from its 40 to the New Braunfels 30 before the Yoemen bogged down and let the ball go over on downs to the Unicorns.

All this exciting action took part in the first quarter.

The Unicorns failed to connect on their next series, and punted to Moseley on his 26—he returned to the 30.

Cameron worked up to the 45, but Fuchs fumbled at that point and the Unicorns recovered.

They worked it to the Cameron 38 and the Cameron defense stiffened and punted over the Yoemen goal.

The Yoemen opened up and pushed from their 20 that carried to the New Braunfels 15, but the gun ending the second quarter caught them there and snuffed out a possible score.

Second-half action opened somewhat slower than that in the first.

The New Braunfels crew took the kickoff on its own 15 and Schmid returned it to the 29. Bindseil and Pittman alternated to carry to the Cameron 47, then they added Schmid to form a trio and moved on down to the Cameron 27. Again the Yoemen tightened the clamps on their defense and held the powerful running attack of the Unicorns for downs.

Cameron ran three plays and Eixman punted out of bounds on the New Braunfels 35.

This time the Unicorns scooted the ball back to the Cameron 15, but again they were held for downs. It was the same old story—Bindseil, Pittman and Schmid were the boys to shoulder the load.

From their own 15, the Yoemen opened a sustained drive that netted them their second tie during the battle.

Moseley carried three times up to the 32, Beale gave him a rest but failed to gain, then the mighty little mite carried again for five.

They hit a knot at this point, and Eixman dropped back to punt but was roughed in the process and Cameron was favored with a 15- yard penalty to the Unicorn 45. After two plays failed to gain for the Yoemen, Fuchs eased back to pass, but ran instead, and wasn't stopped until he reached the 14.

On another fuorth-down pass play from Fuchs to Armstrong, the Yoemen scored. Wilkinson knotted the count with his extra point.

That rubbed New Braunfels' fur the wrong way and the Unicorns marched 73 yards following the kickoff to gain a lead they held the rest of the way.

Starting from his 27, Pittman ripped off 13 yards on two tries. Cameron was penalized five yards for offsides and Pittman picked up another two. Bindseil hit to the Cameron 42 and the Yoemen drew another five-yard penalty.

Schmid, Bindseil and Pittman took turns to slap the ball on the Cameron two, and from there Pittman romped over form the tally.

The Yoemen were caught near midfield when the game ended.

Slightly lower temperatures were predicted for the Panhandle to-night to reinforce the icy atmosphere that spread over central Texas Sunday night.

Freezing temperatures may prevail again to-night in Cameron. The lowest temperature in Texas Sunday night was recorded at Van Horn with 12 degrees. El Paso had 18 degrees.

Temperature of 30 1-2 degrees was recorded here early Monday morning, it was reported by L. W. Smith, manager for the Community Public Service Company and weather observer for the government.

For the second time this season freezing temperatures have been experienced here with heavy frost.

The weather for the next 24 hours will be cold and another freeze is predicted for Monday night. After that moderation will set in and by the week end the weather should be much warmer.

Skies were clear over Texas generally. A storm passing to the east had laid torrential rains along the Atlantic coast line but none of the moisture came to the drouth area of the southwest.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Weems will spend the Thanksgiving holidays with their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Lincoln Barber 11, at Jacksonville.

Louie Gerick Saw Silver Plane Flying Low Over Bottoms

Louie Gerick wh oresides on his farm south of Cameron across Little River was in Cameron Monday and told The Daily Herald that on November 18 that he saw a silver, one engined plane flying very low over the river bottoms.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerick recalled the plane when they heard the radio announcement that such a plane was missing. The plane he said answered the description of the plane reported missing and was flying so low and so very fast it attracted their attention and they went outside and watched it disappear southwestward in the direction of San Antonio.

Mr. Gerick reported what he had seen to the Sheriff's office here and to the highway partol.

Passengers on the missing plane are Mr. and Mrs. W. W. York and their point, Joel Ritter of Allentown, Pa.

The area between Waco and Houston is being combed and 50 planes were standing by at Ellington Field near Houston for any report that might indicate whereabouts of the plane believed to be down somewhere southwest of Cameron.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Watson and family of Taylor and Mr. and Mrs. John Watson of Dallas were visitors in the Judge Watson home for the holidays.

so fast and furiously that they have prepared their resignation from the local school system . . . . . these resignations will be placed in the hands of the school board next Wednesday night." Unquote.

It may not be too naive to say that they may have had a large share in the causes for this rise of criticism, no doubt, in the main arising from the sale of football tickets in the San Saba and New Braunfels games here. The people at large had nothing to do with the manner of this sale. They cried out when they believed they had not been treated fairly.

Now, to quote again: "Well, folks, it's time we got together and let these school men know that after all it is their job to run the school and the athletic program; and that we have no more right to but into their affairs than they have to tell us how to run our respective business enterprises." Unquote.

The choice of language may be unfair to the school men in this rescue attempt. But you have it right out of the horse's mouth. You must not "but into their affairs." After all you are only a citizen and a tax payer, just Old John Q. Public with a knot on your head. We submit that if they haven't been running the show, we would like to know who has That being true the consequences are inevitable.

We do not believe this "resignation" thing is at all sincere. It is just a way to get an indorsement from the school board and a vindication of what they have done to bring the criticism their newspaper says has dictated their action in placing their resignations.

If the school board refuses their resignations, which they will no doubt do, and that action is made an excuse for complete vindication; that the school officials are now right and the people are wrong, no matter how trival or serious the stirup may be, the farce will be patent to all.

If on the other hand they can be driven to resign because of a flare up over football tickets, we borrow from a celebrated Texas political event when Mr. So and So threatened to jump from a 15 story office window. If such petulance is in reality true and they are heading for the precipice, we say: "Stand back boys, and let 'em jump."

It seems to us that education is more important than athletics.

You can't carve anything out of rotten wood.

Gray Interim

Thanksgiving is over; Christmas lies just ahead. It is that gray interim between the celebration of an old harvest and the celebration of a new birth. After Christmas the days will grow longer again; the promise of summer will lurk in the increasing light, even when that light dazzles coldly on ice.

But at this moment, between two festivals, all is stripped, stark, pared to the bone. The days grow shorter; the chill grows keener. This is the time for sober workmen to set themselves to solid tasks. There is always new inspiration ahead to flood in and warm the gray of honest effort. There are always new harvests beckoning.—Christian Science Monitor.

EARY CHRISTMAS MAIL IS VITAL TO SERVICE

Postmaster John R. Hays today appealed to local residents to plan to mail all Christmas greeting cards and gift packages "just as early in December as possible."

An even heavier flood of Yuletide mail is expected this Christmas than during the record-breaking 1947 holiday season, when the local post office cancelled 150,000 pieces of mail.

"If you postpone mailing to the last minute this year," the Postmaster warned, "you risk disappointing your friends. Your holiday messages and gifts may be caught in the rush and perhaps not delivered until after Christmas."

All packages should be mailed before December 10 to assure delivery before Christmas Day, he said. Christmas cards for out-of-State delivery also should be mailed by December 10 and cards for local addresses should be in the collection boxes at least a week before December 25.

Early Christmas mailing is extremely vital, the Postmaster said, because handling the Christmas mail load is divided into three phases. First, the mail for out-of-town must be collected and dispatched by rail and air. Then, delivery of Yuletide greetings being exchanged locally becomes the big job. Finally, there is the last-minute flood of cards and packages from out-of-town to be handled.

"Whenever these three opeartions overlap, there's a jam in the post office and deliveries are delayed," the Postmaster declared.

The Postmaster pointed out that parcel post packages cannot be accepted unless stoutly wrapped, and advised shoppers to lay in supplies of heavy cardboard, and outer paper, heavy cord and printed Fourth-Class labels. Packages are limited to 70 pounds in weight, and must not measure more than 100 inches in length and girth combined. The address should be repeated inside the outer wrappings.

BASIL-WILSON COMPANY WILL MEET PRODUCERS

The preliminary satge of what may be the most important farm income movement in a generation here, will be set at 9 a. m. Friday morning at the Basil-Wilson Produce Company in Cameron.

Mr. Wilson is calling a meeting of turkey producers and prospective producers to talk over his plan to finance 30,000 turkeys for this area.

All turkey raisers and those who wish to get in on this exceptional offer are requested to be at the produce house here at 9 a. m. Friday, December 3.

Mr. Wilson announced two weeks ago that he would finance a turkey program by furnishing the poults and commercial feed. All the farmer has to do is furnish his own grain and raise the turkeys. There will be no obligation to sell them to the produce house sponsoring the porgram and raisers will have an open market choice.

This is the first such program ever attempted here on a large scale and producers no doubt will want to hear more about it and Mr. Wilson will be here in person to direct the information discussion.

GILMER-AIKIN REPORT IS REVOLUTIONARY PACT

The Gilmer-Aikin report so widely publicised and so little understood by the mass of people who will be directly affected by the revolutionary changes proposed for the system of public schools, has the following 4 proposals:

1. Revamp state adminIstrantion; 2. Reorganization of local school districts. 3. A Minimum foundation program. 4. New and increased financing.

It should be remembered that this report, if adopted by the Legislature as a remedy for the present deficiencies in the public school system, local rural schools would no longer exist. Instead there would be only three or four in the county.

The revamped State administration would be vested in CEA—Central Educational Authority. It would include a State Board of Education, a Commisisoner of Education, and a State Department of Education.

Real power of CEA would lie in the Commissioner of Education. He would be a Ph. D. in education, named by the State Board of Education, serve for an "indeterminate appointment" after "a probationary period of three years," act as the "Executive Agent" of the State Board of Education, run the State Department of Education, and have actual say on what textbooks and other teaching aids to be purchased.

Policy forming and review would be the function of the State Board of Education. There would be nine members of the Board, elected by popular vote from nine respective districts, serving three-year staggered terms.

A new five-member "State School Investment Commission" serving five-year staggered terms would replace the State Board Education in managing the Permanent School Fund.

Manifold mechanics of State administration of public schools, including vocational education, would vest in the State Department of Education.

Teacher certification would be according to "a simple statute . . . which states that all teachers and administrators must have a valid State certificate . . . and that CEA shall prescribed rules and regulations and issue the certificates."

A special commission to "study . . . teacher education in the State" is proposed.

School construction would be governed by a new minimum safety code.

There is proposed a new compulsory law: parents and guardians guilty of a misdemeanor for failure to enroll and keep in regular attendance children of school age; loss of accreditation for a school system with average daily attendance lower than 80 per cent.

A "continuing school census . . . (to) account for children from birth through their eighteenth birthday" is recommended.

Recodifying public school laws is asked.

Reorganization of local school districts would be drastic under the proposals of the Gilmer-Aikin Committee.

a. Abolish all common school districts;

b. Permit a county-wide school district;

c. Let two or more counties form a joint school district;

d. All districts be governed as present independent districts;

e. Create a State Commission to initiate school district reorganization.

A "minimum foundation program" for each local school system would be guaranteed by the State Under proposals of the Gilmer-Aikin Committee. It would include:

1. Twelve years' schooling for all children through high school graduation;

2. Vocational or other training for those not in regular school;

3. Teacher load: 25 pupils in average daily attendance per class;

4. Special teachers and special instruction for exceptional children;

5. One counselor for each 500 pupils;

6. One full time librarian for each 500 pupils;

7. Supervisors at the ratio of one to each 50 teachers;

8. One graduate nurse for not less than each 2,000 pupils.

9. One principal for each school of twelve or more teachers.

10. One superintendent for a system of 25 or more teachers;

11. Bus transportation for pupils 1 1-2 miles or more from school;

12. "A program of direct services to the community . . . activities for adults;"

13. In grammar school emphasis on "wholesome child growth and development;"

14. In high school emphasis on "general education needed by all citizens."

New and increased financing begins with paying for the "minimum foundation program" estimated by the Committee to cost $180,000,000 a year for the next State biennium. Of this total the Committee recommends the Legislature the next biennium require the local districts to pay $45,000,000 a year.

The State would apply to each local district "an economic index" full details not yet available to determine that district's part of the $45,000,000.

What the local district lacked from its own revenues, plus its money from the Per Capita Apportionment, would be paid out of the "Foundation Program Fund."

State aid on Buildings and equipment is proposed for two years hence.

A $2,400 beginning teacher's salary with provisions for regular increases, and proportional pay for other personnel, is proposed by the Cammittee.

Their Future is in the Balance

Meat animals are what they eat! It takes a balanced ration to keep them healthy, growing and gaining. Successful livestock men know this. Hundreds of controlled feeding experiments prove it. Morrison, the great feeding authority, states—"Lambs on unbalanced rations require 46% more corn and 15% more hay for each 100 pounds of gain!"

Balanced rations for hogs show spectacular results. Anyone can make a lot of fat and a little lean with corn and water. But that's the slow, expensive way. It takes a pile of corn to do it. But with corn balanced with proteins and minerals and vitamins hogs can be fed to market weights in six months or less. Think of the corn you can save—11 bushels of corn alone will make 100 pounds of pork, but only 6½ bushels of corn plus 35 pounds of protein supplement will do the same job faster.

Scores of feeding trials prove that a balanced ration pays with steers and lambs, whether on the range or in the feedlot. In fact, the same basic principle applies to all livestock and poultry. Forage and other homegrown feeds, properly balanced with proteins and minerals, make more and better meat pounds at less cost.

Continuous research affords new and exciting means of using available materials in improved rations for livestock. At first, tankage alone was used to add protein to hog rations. It did a good job. Then research proved that a combination of proteins is better than one kind alone. A mixture of tankage, soybean meal, linseed meal and, in some areas, cottonseed meal, produces better quality pork even faster. This improvement in rations makes for more efficient and economical use of proteins. But what about vitamins and minerals? Here, too, many advancements in techniques of supplying these nutrients have been made. Dehydrated alfalfa, milk solids, vitamin oils, and some synthetic sources provide essential vitamins and other factors. Mineral balance is necessary, too. Salt, the universal need, supplies sodium and chlorine. Steamed bone meal supplies calcium and phosphorus, and other major minerals. With these, alert research men now are combining other known essential elements, such as cobalt, manganese, iron, iodine, copper, and magnesium, to turn slow gainers into fast gainers.

How good are you kids at knowing the names of the animals used to help you play games?

In baseball, what part of a steer do you wear? Why, the glove has a padding that's made from its hair!

In what game would you say the pig best fits in? Yes, football, that's right—the ball's called a "pigskin"!

And the last time you walloped a tennis ball—wham! Did you know that the racket strings came from a—lamb?

First Calves Forecast Production

Marvin Koger

by Marvin Koger,
Animal Husbandman
New Mexico A. & M. Experiment Station

Want to estimate efficiency of calf production in your cow herd? The cow's first calf tells more than her good looks. In a New Mexico study, we took the weaning weights of first calves weaned by three-year-old cows. These weights were compared with the weaning weights of calves raised by these same cows in the next four years. Cows and calves were placed in five groups (according to the weaning weight of first calves). Here's the 5-year record:

Groups	Average First Calf Weight From 3-Year-Old Cows	Average Calf Weights From Same Cows for Next 4 Years
Group 1	321 pounds	404 pounds
Group 2	349 pounds	417 pounds
Group 3	383 pounds	430 pounds
Group 4	409 pounds	443 pounds
Group 5	441 pounds	456 pounds

Considering only the two extremes, Group One and Group Five, it was shown that breeding stock picked from Group One could be expected to produce, for the next four years, calves that had a yearly average weaning weight of only 404 pounds. But those picked from Group Five should produce calves with a yearly average weaning weight of 456 pounds, 52 pounds more than Group One.

These figures show that later calves are apt to be a repeat performance of the cow's first calf. Cows doing poorly their first calving year continued to produce the lightest group of calves. They were poor risks. Culling cows with light, scrubby first calves would be well repaid in greater profit through more efficient production.

If you would like a full report on this experiment, write to New Mexico A. & M. Experiment Station, State College, N. M.

"It takes a big tractor to pull a heavy-duty plow"

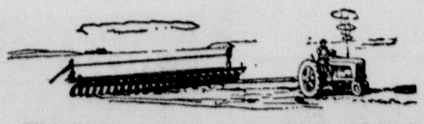
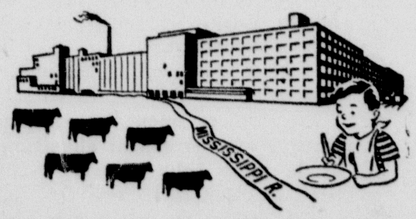
This large tractor is especially designed to handle the big and heavy jobs—easily, efficiently, economically.



This little tractor is good when used for its proper purposes. But it is not built to pull such a heavy plow.



It's the same way with business, including the meat-packing business. There's need for all kinds and sizes of packing plants—large ones as well as small ones. Two-thirds of the livestock is produced west of the Mississippi River. Two-thirds of the meat is eaten east of it. Bringing meat and meat-eaters together is a big job!

That's where the "big tractor" proves its worth. The country needs nation-wide meat packers like Swift & Company. For with processing plants located where most of the livestock is raised, we can help bridge the gap between western range and feedlots and the kitchen range. It is an important job, filling the vital needs of producers and consumers. As we have served them over the years, we have grown. And as we have grown, so also our ability to serve has grown.

U. S. Seizes Fake Money

WASHINGTON.—More than two-thirds of the $3,094,000 in counterfeit American money seized in the last year was made in Europe, the secret service reported. It was the biggest volume of seizures since the service was created in 1865.

James J. Maloney, chief of the secret service, said in a report to John W. Snyder, secretary of the treasury, that over two-thirds of the imitation currency was grabbed at Marseilles, France.

Maloney reported that "by far the greatest enforcement problem" now is the theft and forgery of government checks — mostly tax refunds—and savings bonds. More than 32,000 forged checks and 11,000 forged bonds were received for investigation.

The millions of taxpayers who expect refunds and those who regularly receive government checks for other purposes, were urged to watch their mail boxes carefully. Merchants were asked to demand positive identification before cashing checks.

Make Big Haul.

Fake United States currency amounting to $2,145,200 was seized in a large plant in Marseilles by U. S. secret service agents and French police. Twelve counterfeiters now await trial in French courts. Other foreign seizures totaled $201,596. Only $42,566 got into circulation here, mostly through immigrants who bought it in good faith overseas.

Domestic counterfeiting also increased, but not alarmingly. Some $747,434 in home-made bills and coins were captured. All but $100,000 worth was seized before it could be passed. The secret service arrested 2,278 persons in the year, including 1,964 for check and bond forgery and 158 for counterfeiting.

Other arrests included nine men in Florida and Georgia who proved also to be stolen-car racketeers. This haul brought in $60,000 in counterfeit notes as well as a quantity of stolen New Jersey auto-registration certificates. The defendants were sentenced to terms ranging from three to seven years each.

Question Suspect.

One bond-forgery case developed odd quirks. Maloney related these details: Agents from Los Angeles questioned Roy L. Bowman, gas station owner at Madera, Calif., as to what he knew about some United States savings bonds stolen in Avondale, Colo., in a safe burglary.

The questioning had hardly begun when Bowman interrupted with: "Okay, boys, I knew you'd catch up with me as soon as you nabbed Billy Williams." He thereupon confessed to forging bonds given him by Williams. The agents had no idea who Williams was, but set out to find him.

With only the name to guide them, they canvassed California hotels and tourist camps, finally locating Williams and his 17-year-old wife in Fresno. When questioned about the bonds, Williams made the same mistake as Bowman. He thought the agents knew all about his career of crime and confessed a trail of burglaries and bond forgeries over most of the United States. Both men are awaiting trial.

Political Candidate Tests Oratory on Bandit but Fails

VENTURA, CALIF.—Republican Assembly Candidate Charles Teague had a chance to test his oratory and lost.

Teague and his wife were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Price of Ojai. Together with the Charles Raymonds they were playing cards when a masked youth burst into the room armed with a small-bore rifle.

The youth demanded that the card players toss their wallets to him.

Teague, a Ventura attorney, started to talk. He tried to persuade the teenage intruder to mend his ways. He told the boy that it was not too late to avoid a life of crime.

The boy pondered Teague's words for a few minutes and then decided he liked banditry better. He departed with three wallets containing $150.

Hit by Bottle, Wrestling Fan Is Awarded Damages by Court

RICHMOND, VA.—The state supreme court of appeals is pondering this one.

A Norfolk circuit court awarded Mrs. Virginia G. Cox, a wrestling fan, $1,500 damages from Bill Lewis, promoter, because Mrs. Cox was struck in the head by a whisky bottle while watching a match.

Mrs. Cox claimed damages because she said she was struck with the flying bottle after the audience became aroused when a wrestler, Jimmy Coffield stuck his opponent with a pin.

She charged that Lewis should not have permitted such conduct in the ring.

Lewis appealed with the defense that he had tried to keep bottles out of the auditorium. His petition also said Mrs. Cox should have realized "that wrestling matches are not tea parties."

A former serviceman with 22 months service, Edward A. Whitelay of Rockdale has enlisted in the U. S. Air Force for three years. During the last war he spent 16 months overseas.

CAST IN ROLE OF THE UNDERDOGS TONIGHT

(From the Daily)

Playing the underdog role for the first time in 1948 the Yoemen will back their chances in an uphill climb to another rung on the championship ladder tonight at the stadium in Cameron against the New Braunfels Unicorns.

Game time is 7:30 p. m.

Sports writers have cast the Yoemen in the underdog role and they base their conclusions on the relative strength of the teams. The Yoemen will be playing on their home grounds and this will be to their advantage.

Whether Cameron has played the weaker schedule is not definitely known.

Here is the New Braunfels season record:

New Braunfels 38, Fredericksburg 0.
New Braunsfels 53, Brackenridge B 0
New Braunfels 69, Th. Jefferson B 0
New Braunfels 69, Yoakum 0.
New Braunfels 40, Lockhart 0.
New Braunfels 34, Gonzales 13
New Braunfels 66, San Marcos 6.
New Braunfels 7, Seguin 6
New Braunfels 27, Navasota 7.
New Braunfels 483, Opponents 32.

As the game time approached it seemed fairly certain that the Class A state championship may well be decided here to-night.

The largest crowd in the history of local football was expected and newspaper writers from over a wide area of central Texas will be here to chronicle the game. Station KTEM of Temple will broadcast the game and hundreds of fans in Cameron who could not get tickets will have to remain home for their radio reception.

Here are the probable staring lineups for the game with the exception of Jerome Bindseil, ace back for the Unicorns who was injured in the game with Gonzales and may see only limited service:

CAMERON

Howard Beale, 195 pound fullback for the Yoemen is getting a big play for all state honors since he has scored 23 touchdowns for the season and may have gotten credit for a safety and that would give him 140 points.

Why Hudson Beauty
is more than "skin-deep"

The modern design for '49

The New Hudson—the first and only car you step down into—achieves true streamlining and today's lowest silhouette as the natural result of a basically new design principle available in no other type of automobile!

Every time your eyes linger on a New Hudson, you are admiring beauty as genuine as nature at her glorious best!

For this stunning streamliner has fresh styling that begins deep inside the car with a recessed floor which is the key to the "step-down" design—the exciting idea that opens up new opportunities for genuinely beautiful lines!

Yes, for years it has been widely known that the lower a car can be built, the more beautiful it will be, the better it will ride and handle.

But whenever men have sought to create the ideal in low-built motor cars, without lowering the interior floor, they've had to keep top lines high to preserve inside head room, or reduce inside roominess to get top lines down—an unsatisfactory compromise in either case.

And even with compromises, no car has ever matched the glamorously low silhouette Hudson brings you today!

This is because Hudson—and Hudson alone—has a recessed floor in an exclusive, all steel Monobilt body-and-frame* which makes it possible to build the lowest car on the highway—just five feet from ground to top—but with more head room than in any mass-produced car built today!

The exciting, more than skin-deep beauty of the New Hudson is the natural result of this basic "step-down" construction, which is so right it frees the designer of the need for makeshifts in styling.

We cordially invite you to see and drive the New Hudson. You'll quickly sense that this car is so far ahead it's a protected investment in motor car value.

*Trade-mark and patents pending.

The many advantages in Hudson's "step-down" design are explained in a booklet available at all Hudson dealers'.

TEACHERS INDORSE THE GILMER-AIKEN REPORT

Far reaching, revolutionary changes in the public school system in Texas are being projected for the coming session of the legislature.

Texas State Teachers Association has indorsed the report which recommends that all common school districts in Texas be abolished and that a county Board system be set up to designate locations of schools. The proposed change, if enacted would abolish the office of County Superintendent.

Here in Milam county teachers and school leaders have already indorsed the proposed changes and the report will be presented soon in full comment.

Chas. M. Hicks, County Superintendent, has prepared a complete outline of the report. On Tuesday, November 16 a meeting was held in Cameron with educational leaders attending. A county wide committee has been set up to process the proposed changes by giving complete information.

If enacted by the legislature the system would provide a bus system to transport children to common centers for education and would reduce the number of schools to around 4 in the county or whatever number a county board would determine.

Can Texas Brag?

Friends to libraries and other civic minded Texans all over the State lately received a circular letter bearing "an important message." Mrs. E. H. Marek of Yoakum, for Texas Library Association, and Mrs. Malcom T. Swann of Itasca, for Texas Friends of Libraries, were reminding the citizen that his State Library will call upon the Legislature next spring for $200,000 a year to carry out a library development program. Such a grant would render possible a hopeful start toward taking books to the 3 1-2 million Texans who now have no public libraries. Many of the 214 counties that lack a county-wide tax-supported library would benefit.

Can Texans Brag, challenges the letter's accompanying folder, when their State spends only 1 cent per capita on its library system, as compared with Oklahoma's 4 cents, Arkansas' 7 cents, Louisiana's and New Mexico's 8 cents? What is worse, Texas has more bookless people than any other State. It ranks 36th in public library expenditures. Moreover, 150 counties have no public libraries at all within their boundaries. Among 3,700 cities and towns in Texas, only 100 maintain free public libraries. Among the bookless communities aer six cities of more than 10,000 population. Texas can and must do better than that.

Recognizing the library as an indispensable part of the public educational system, Governor Jester requested the Legislature in January 1947, to appropriate $200,000 a year for a State Library extension program, like that now proposed. Then the "sconomy-minded" lawmakers rejected the suggestion. They had not convincingly heard from the people, demanding books to help them with the day's work or better to understand community or world affairs. So the Legislature voted millions to put the schools on their feet—to teach youth how to use books, but only a niggardly sum to put books into the children's (and adults') hands.

State Library and Historical Commission at Austin has prepared a program for using that $200,000 a year to reach the greatest possible number of book-hungry people. For next year it would set up five regional plants, with books, bookmobiles and trained workers, in five key cities. The following year it would establish five more such centers. From each, one or more bookmobiles would go out to the communities that lack free libraries.

Strong incentive to the proposed State grant (which would not be missed from an affluent State Treasury) is afforded by the prospect that, in 1949, Congress may pass the long - pending Hill-Aiken-Jenkens Bill. For library extension, that measure would allot Texas $25,000 a year outright and as much as $75,000 a year additional — to be matched by State funds—over a four-year term. — San Antonio Express.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES

"God the Preserver of Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon which will be read in all Churches of Christ Scientist, on Sunday, December 12.

The Golden Text is: "I the Lord thy God will hold thy right hand, saying unto thee, Fear not; I will help thee" (Isaiah 41:13).

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life" (John 3:16).

The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Divine Truth, Life, and Love gave Jesus authority over sin, sickness, and death. His mission was to reveal the Science of celestial being, to prove what is and what He does for man" (page 26).
